August. [REDACTED] suggested a memo to State commending their cooperation. [REDACTED] reported a conversation with Bob Packard from State concerning technicians at U.S. missions. The outlook for establishing these is poor. He further stated that the use of non-technical types currently used may be the final as well as interim answer for broadcast monitoring behind the Iron Curtain.

5. [REDACTED] reported that a contract operation with [REDACTED] is being used to produce the monthly report in lieu of personnel lost by the EMW Branch/OSI. A slippage of three weeks on the monthly report is anticipated.

6. [REDACTED] read the conclusions of a report by IOTAC--subcommittee on Project [REDACTED]. No conflict in policy or jurisdiction was anticipated by [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] discussed budget considerations for RSB/SR participation with [REDACTED] OCR, as four additional slots would be required. Mr. Stetson said Commo was interested but budget was not considered at this time. [REDACTED] is against their participation in the project for reasons of security, and other operational problems. [REDACTED] submitted the estimated budget figures to amounts to [REDACTED] the first year, and [REDACTED] on a continuing basis. A discussion ensued. [REDACTED] felt the project fell more naturally in Commo, and processing of information could better be handled by [REDACTED]. He will undertake to obtain [REDACTED] views. Recommendations were then read by [REDACTED] concerning an assignment of responsibilities for the operations. Reconsideration of recommendations was requested by the chairman in view of [REDACTED] rejection of the project, and possible acceptance in part by Commo. The draft report was remanded to the working group.

7. Under old business, [REDACTED] reported that ORR had written a commendation to DIRNSA on the usefulness of NSC-TSL series of reports, and hoped more would be forthcoming.

8. Under new business, [REDACTED] reported that he is being assigned to [REDACTED] and will be stationed [REDACTED] for liaison purposes on SI interests. The Chairman expressed his appreciation for the faithful and devoted interest [REDACTED] has shown in four years as Secretary of IOTAC.

9. The Chairman discussed the role of IOTAC since its inception four years ago, pointing out that it had undertaken a number of matters not specifically related to NSC-169. He suggested the Committee reconsider the current role of IOTAC.
